Aim of Program

This program aims to provide with a comprehensive understanding of the impactful implementation of the SSIP 2.0 policy at the campus level, focusing on sensitizing SSIP coordinators about various policy components.

About the Program

First, there was a registration desk where the heads of institutes and SSIP Coordinators from various institutes had to register, followed by an arrangement of tea and snacks. The program began around 11:00 a.m. with the introduction of guests and the implementation of the new policy SSIP 2.0, during which experts explained the various key roles of SSIP coordinator.

In second session one expert has explained about the Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and its importance for startups. Information on financial assistance available under SSIP for patent, trademark, copyright, and industrial design registration.
